Dedication

David Cavallaro

For over 30 years, Mr. Cavallaro has demonstrated hard work and dedication as a teacher here at Masconomet. He obtained a Bachelor of Science from Boston University and received his Associate Master Teacher Achievement in 1980. He is an incredibly caring man, whether he is teaching at school, or at home with his family. Mr. Cavallaro has also managed to incorporate his entire family into his life at Masconomet. His wife, Elysa, worked as a substitute teacher for many years. His son, Luke, a former Masco graduate, worked alongside his father and currently helps with the Girls' Indoor Track Team. Mr. Cavallaro arrives at school everyday with a smile on his face and a spring in his step. His optimistic attitude and enthusiasm causes students to look forward to his class everyday. Over the years he has taught many different levels of Spanish and has devoted much of his time as the advisor of the Spanish Club. Outside of the classroom, Mr. Cavallaro is a coach for the Girls' Indoor Track Team, which has won several Cape Ann League Championships. Every Friday, Mr. Cavallaro shows his commitment to his team by purchasing doughnuts and selling them to his students. All of the benefits from the sale help to buy new equipment for the team. These acts of kindness prove that Mr. Cavallaro is indeed worthy of the Best Coach award, which he won in 2002. In his spare time, Mr. Cavallaro works at Ingaldsby Farm, and his crops have won numerous awards at the Topsfield Fair. Mr. Cavallaro's passions for life, family, farming and above all, teaching, make him a great friend and a great teacher. The students and faculty of Masconomet are privileged to have him as a part of our school.

Thank you, Mr. Cavallaro, for everything you have brought to our school over the years.

SPORTS

BOYS

Coach Emmons and his team continued their winning ways, capturing the CAL championship yet again. The season climaxed with a 1-0 victory over the NA Scarlet Nights. The boys completed one of their pre-season goals by having an undefeated regular season. The team consisted of all juniors and seniors, which created an awesome chemistry. Tough defense was played, sensational goals were scored, and "so mach" lasting friendships were formed.

SOCCER

How do you guys keep the tradition alive?

"We love the hog." -R. Thatcher
"We win." -J. Geibel

GIRLS

The girls' team didn't exactly have the record they wished for this year, but that didn't ruin their spirits. The girls had a blast, and many friendships were formed. With injuries galore and goals in few count, the girls worked hard to finish the season. From dancing in the field house, to wearing their "Shooters" shirts, loosing never got in the way of these slams having fun. The girls conquered the boys' team on late night TP missions...seven houses in one night! Nasty! But no matter what people say, this team will always KICKSSA KICKSSA KICKSSA!

How do you girls kick SSA?

"We said it three times before every game. Does that count?" -H. Kendall

"We tried but take a look at our record...oops." -J. Michalek

"I'm pretty sure the other teams did." -M. Killelea

FOOT

Wow boys...you had a nasty season! This team really came together on and off the field. They worked hard during practices, watched replays of all of their games, and took their team further than it has ever been before... to The Superbowl. With four strong captains supporting the guys, they were lead to victory with an amazing 8-2 regular season record. Congrats on a spectacular season...here's to making history.

CHEER

How could you not love cheering for a winning team? The team had a great time this year and their team spirit on the sidelines helped the boys on and off the field. Despite many injuries... some from cheering and some which are still being investigated... the team never lost their "cheer." They made it to regionals and represented Masco with their love for cheering. The seniors will be missed next year, but their positive leadership helped set up next year's team for a great upcoming season.

What was it like cheering for a winning team?

BOYS

The guys had yet another great season, finishing off with only one loss to Pentucket. They had many great times as a team whether it was running on the roads, Rossi falling in love with a tree, or the annual Meat Fest. Not only were they a winning team, but these speed demons were close and their friendships on the track lasted outside of their season.

GIRLS

From the long runs in the summer heat, to the track workouts in the pouring rain, the X-C bunnies had another fun and successful season. With their record of 9-1 the girls went on to take second place in the CAL Open and seventh place at states. They were kept motivated by the lollipops at the finish line, the alphabet game, and of course Mr. Casey's blue truck always roaming the streets of Topsfield. No matter what, the bunnies kept running!

GOLF

When you are a part of the most physically demanding sport at Masco... you tend to take it very seriously. After missing states last year, the team dug their way out of a bunker and returned to their previous ways by making states once again. The season was filled with lots of good times and the occastional accident, "Consi". But the guys had a great season and over all they played up to par.

FIELD

Dear Diary,
YOU KNOW, the Masco Field Hockey team worked hard all season, running the good ol' XC course, or doing Indian Sprints around the soccer fields. The girls ran into a hard season, but nothing the lucky nut couldnt take care of. But because of their struggles during the season, they let all of their anger out during WWFH. Whether it was pouring rain at Manchester, fighting Yanni, or taking out the trash at NA, the team stuck together through thick and thin, with "the circle" keeping them bonded on and off the field.

VOLLEY

Although they lost five starters this year, the girls were able to make the best out of their season. They had strong support from their coaches, captains, and the twinkie. The new players were able to get a feel for the Varsity intensity from their captains and experienced players. The girls had a lot of fun together and their experiences this year will lead to a great start for next year's players.

Boys

To be blunt, this season was a struggle for the boys. Their schedule had them playing many of the top teams on the North Shore, which led to many heartbreaking losses in the early stages. After a tough start the team had to bond in order to turn their season around. This required hard work by all the guys, including four hour practices and many Buddy moments. In the end, all their hard work payed off as the team was able to win two huge games at the end of the sesaon.

Girls

After seven seniors graduated, many might have expected this to be a rebuilding year. However, Coach Romeo and the girls had a different plan. The girls started strong in the beginning with a record of 6-2, but faced tough opponents in the middle of the season. This lapse in offense didn't stop them as they came back and won five of the last six games and qualified for the state tournament once again. Outside of the court the girls bonded with many pasta parties and team sleepovers. Congratulations on a great season, girls!

BOYS

The Boys Indoor team had another great season this year, winning the Cape Ann League title yet again. Throughout the season the team repeatedly slaughtered the competition in both individual and group events. The practices included everything from long distance running to Polar Bear Swims in the the Ipswich River. Their hard work and determination earned the team both the CAL title as well as second place in states.

BOYS

The boys started off slow with only 1 win out of 6 games. Low and behold, all hopes were restored with a solid win against Lynnfield. The team came extremely close to states, but a tie in the final game of the season placed them third in CALs. With the loss of seven seniors from last year's team, the boys were able to fill the skates with even bigger talent.

GIRLS

With an overall record of 8-8-2, the girls were able to impress everyone. By obtaining eight victories, they made states for the first time ever in Masco Girls "Hackey" history. To do this, they made a long trip to their home rink in Gloucester. Although the girls were on thin ice towards the end of their season, they "just kept skating." These girls did whatever it took to have a successful season, and through their tie-dye parties built a strong team bond that will carry out through next year.

BOYS

Although their record may not show it, these boys really had a great year. Overall, both the boys' and girls' teams experienced many memorable moments, whether it be at Papa Ginos or watching a fellow teammate hit the starting shack. Good job boys!

GIRLS

The girls conquered Mount Bradford this year, silencing Fenwick on two occasions. As they began their desent down the hill the girls took one last glimpse at starter boy for motivation. The ladies were extremely devoted, some even displayed their passion by refusing to quit even though they had concussions. Sporting their hot spandex, they made their forty-five degree angle turns all the way down the mountain, catching the eyes of all the bystanders. By the time the season was over, the team formed friendships that will last a life time.

There's a time and place, for everything. There's a reason why certain people meet.
There's a destination for everyone, Whats the explanation when we're done?
All these summer nights spent wondering. So many questions asked, but no one's answering. Would it be okay if I left today?

I've heard too many times how these 4 years would pass me by,

When ya get to highschool, never take any chances for granted. Zia Maria and Uncle Paul - Thanks for everything you guys have done me. Jess- Just when ya think it's over, BANG! I simply cannot believe I'm here. When you look back on this book x years from now, you think the same thing, and it will amaze you. The Godfather once said, "A man that doesn spend time with his family, can never be a real man." You are all my family, so I thank you and I dedicate this space to you: Mom, Dad – Words cannot describe; I am eternally grateful for your selflessness and your love. I love you both so very much. Parker – I've be told by many that I have the coolest brother in the world, and they're all right. don't turn away, you don't have to run; every day has a rising sun,
And one day yours is gonna come and take your blues away.
So don't turn away, keep your toes on the line,

And wash your blues away, so don't turn away."

The four years at Masco have been an experience I will not forget. Th people I've met, the friends I've made, and the time we've spent together. I would like to thank my friends and family for being there for these four short years of my life. Our futures are in our hands, all we can do is apply the things we have learned together. difficult to look back upon the last for years and say that they weren't the best four s of my life. They said when we were freshman, sitting in the auditorium, that these s were going to fly by; and they did. I can't say that I made the most of every ment, and I can't say that I cherished every single day, but I certainly tried my best to. never forget high school, as there are far too many quality memories that will be ver fused into my brain. – Ron&Derek - thanks for always being there and for all of positive influence on me; Ray"Ray"- thank you for always supporting me no matter t; MascoXC- keep running, keep having fun, and keep the tradition alive; coTrack/DTeam, fields and rivers; JG- yaarrr; KC-cutie, don't ever change; Dhoe- it a good time; DSylv.- such a pimp; PSmitty- poker, BoSox #1; Stevo- when was it fun? BrettSC- I'll never forget those Friday nights; Good luck class of 2004.... ano

Teenage Life in a 5x2 Inch Box

Once upon a Masco morning, I arrived as a freshmen and was issued a warning:
These years will fly fast, so don't waste a minute... but 4 years of high school?
Who knew where to begin it?

To Mom & Dad: there is no word for the love and appreciation I have for you, thanks for everything. DeeDee & Carly: I love you both! I'm lucky to have my sisters as my best friends. Alyssa and Sara, I'll never run out of great memories! Brett: the one addiction to which there is no cure. Kaitlin: many jokes, more good times. Shawn: Pittown adventures. Everyone else? No regrets guys, no regrets, high school was what we made it. I think we made it worthwhile.

Aubrey Millen

Mom and Daddy- Talk about support. You guys always made life a little easier on me, and I never really thanked you for it. I LOVE YOU.
EMILY- Hated you at day 1, but man what love there is. I'll always remember you. BNay- Wow! So much to say. You've been great, always made me laugh, don't ever change. GUINTA- So many laughs, I don't know where to start. JACKS- Never a dull moment, you always understood me. LAXGIRLS- Who Rock?! Keepin' it strong! SOCCER-Its been real, you can only go up! G'NASTIES- Good times! BRIAN-What do I say? You've been there since the beginning and I can't imagine a older brother better than you. I love you forever, look at the stars.

Where has time gone? Its seems to have slip away from me. The good times, that's all you gotta remember.
Thanks to all the people who have supported me, in tough times. Ben, the Starbucks runs with co-dual and Carlos (ha ha). To my parents, the best friends I will ever have, good advice, on tough choices and projects. To all the people who thought it isn't possible, it is, just try you're hardest and it will come.
I would like to remember all the fun times, with friends BF, AA, JA, JG, TR, CG, JC. To my brothers all the good advice you have given me, and all the adventures. The world turns in all directions, you have to keep with with the pace, or you will be lost.

As we make the journey from high school to the world beyond, we must keep ou goals, our dreams, and our ambitions in mind. We must never forget the four years whicl have passed so quickly before our eye. We must never forget who we are as individuals. The power and determination that each of us has inside must live on forever.

hey, remember me? I was the new kid you probably never even met, I h no clever witticisms or inside jokes to share with you all, so I will dazz you with my uncanny ability to write long sentences about nothing. I h you're enjoying it, because as you read this, your life is slipping away, second at a time, and you can never get these seconds back, ever. This just a petty waste of your short existence on this earth before you beco worm chow, so when you're pushing daisies, don't think about what y should have been doing with your short time rather than reading this, t about...oh wait, you'll be dead, you can't think....because you're dead

No one can count on the future or know what they someday might do.

But if I could have chosen a daughter,

my heart would have reached out for you-I'd have wished for your warm disposition and dreamed of your spirit and style, I'd have hoped for your love and affection,
imagined your beautiful smile...
Life holds some gifts and surprises, and one of the best there could be

Is having a daughter as precious as the one who was given to us.

Angela, follow your dreams,

we're so proud of you!

Love, Mom, Dad, and Robert

Emily,

You are the melody and the harmony,
the chorus and the verse
A love song and a symphony
Such pride, I think we'll burst

You did it all, and did it well as we watched you grow
Your giving soul, your calm, your grace
Love follows you as you go

Love, Mom and Dad

Ode to Caroline

Born two weeks early, our hearts you did steal,
Active and delicate, could love be more real?

Growing too fast, in addition to talking,
Could life be grander? Watch out, she's walking.

Along comes Nick, You are the best sibling,
We cherish you both despite minor quibbling.

Snowflake, vacations, soccer, karate,
Grandmas, cousins, friends, and parties

Camping, juggling, unicycling, belly dancing,
Boyfriends, dating, too soon for romancing!

Dreams of motherhood, working in a zoo,
Driving a school bus, being chef, too.

Know that we love and support you...whatever you do.

Forever, Mom, Dad, and Nick

It's been nice having you along as our traveling companion on our family journey... We've certainly had some great adventure FOZI, Rex, AE, puppies, peacocks, NOY, road trips, skiing....more noy. Hope you'll always have a colorful trip-map!

Remember: Two bites; never let them see you sweat; nothing in life is free; and a sense of humor is a valuable tool...

God bless you,

Love, Mom, Dad & Wes

By the way, what made you start thinking about zoology???

When you were a baby we could never imagine what a wonderful young man you would grow up to be. Your entire life you have worked so hard for this day and we are so proud of everything you've accomplished...and so proud to be your mom and brother.

Through the darkness I can see your light and you will always shine...I look up to everything you are. In my eyes you do no wrong and I believe in you even though you never asked me to... and after all is said and done you're still you.

All our love, Mom and Parker

Your children are not your children. They are sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself. They come through you but not from you. And though they are with you yet they belong not to you. You may give them your love but not your thoughts for they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls. For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you for life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday. You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth...

Congratulations "E"

We are very proud of you. 12 years of hard work are now behind you.

As you move ahead in your life, we offer a little advice.
Keep your head up, your eyes wide, and your heart open.

But most of all, remember to look back once in a while. We will always be behind you with open arms.

Love, Mom, Jim, Max and Shannon

What do you write to your oldest daughter, your 1st born, in her "Senior" yearbook? How just writing the words sends a chill up my spine and at the same time puts a smile on my face. I wish for you Nina, a healthy future, and in that I mean, a well balanced, fulfilling future. So here's to the start of your new life, a life where your decisions are now your own. I pray you make many that are right. Be strong, patient and listen to your feelings. Be passionate in your schoolwork. Hold tight to your dreams, they can come true!!
Love,
Your Mom xoxo

Congratulations James!

We are all so proud of you. You are a wonderful son and devoted brother. God bless you always. We love you very much!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Justine, Rob, and Charlie too!

Frustration is a feeling most keep bottled up inside.
It's a ground hog burrowing into you.
You can't help but lashing out at the ones
you love,
And you get upset at the silliest of things.
And just when you feel
you can't hold anymore, Another load of frustration hits like a freight train on full speed.
Finally you can't hold up
any longer and you just flop over and sigh!

All of the busy things in our lives pile up and just keep on coming.
Reports, and projects, or bosses and financial stuff!
Does it ever stop?
No, it's like construction workers saying,
"Just keep on coming, keep piling it on!"
Too much to think about,
too much to do,
(In fact, if I don't start concentrating on what i am doing, this poem will never get finished!)
Finally you can't hold up
any longer and you just
flop over and sigh!
Another day in your life is complete.

Feeling frustrated?
